This card is to help you reflect on this week's sermon. We encourage you to use it for discussion with your family or friends. Feel free to gather a group for Bible study, encouragement, and prayer. May God bless our listening and study of His Word!

Matthew 18:21-35 Forgive Me, a Sinner

1, What is the power of the government?

2. The law of God has three uses:

- a) _____
- b) _____
- c) _____

The first use (_____) keeps...

The second use (_____) shows...

The third use (_____) is only for _____ and shows me...

3. How might you describe the debt of the first man?

4. Compare his debt with the king and our debt with God, the King.

5. How might you describe the debt of the second man?

6, Compare that debt and the way people sin against us day to day.

7, What part of the Lord's Prayer does this make you think about?

8, "Forgive" means :

9, Think of a person who has sinned against you or done wrong to you. What keeps you from forgiving that person?

10, What makes you want to forgive?

11, What else in this sermon touched you?
