Psalm 1:1-6
"The Way of the Righteous"

<sup>1</sup> Blessed is the one who does not walk in step with the wicked or stand in the way that sinners take or sit in the company of mockers, <sup>2</sup> but whose delight is in the law of the LORD,
and who meditates on his law day and night.
<sup>3</sup> That person is like a tree planted by streams of water,
which yields its fruit in season and whose leaf does not wither—
whatever they do prospers.
<sup>4</sup> Not so the wicked!
They are like chaff
that the wind blows away.
<sup>5</sup> Therefore the wicked will not stand in the judgment,
nor sinners in the assembly of the righteous.
but the way of the wicked leads to destruction.

- In the Psalm, what do the words "planted" and "streams of water" say about each and every Christian?
- Consider God's care and blessing in these words:
  - Fruit
  - Does not wither
  - Prospers
- What attitude does God want us to have about his Word?
- Which Commandment commands this?
- What is "chaff"?
- What are some of the descriptions that David gives here about the punishment of sin?

- What are some specific sins that are brought up here?
- The grace of God overcomes!
- Notice the additional grace in vers 6: "The Lord watches over the way of the righteous."
- How did God make you righteous?
