Philippians 4:4-7

“The Peace of God Guards Your Heart”

⁴ Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again: Rejoice! ⁵ Let your gentleness be evident to all. The Lord is near. ⁶ Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanks-giving, present your requests to God.

⁷ And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

- What is the peace of God?
- How does this peace come to us?
- What is another word for this peace from God?
- In what way is the peace of God like a guard or a sentry?
- This peace is beyond our comprehension. In what way?
- How and why do we damage and disrupt this peace?
- How does God bring about a ceasefire, ending our disruptiveness?
- The peace itself is brought back to us again and again.
- This peace transcends the understanding of the ungodly (the unbeliever), but in what way does it transcend or go beyond our own understanding?
- Why do we sometimes end our sermons with this passage?
